

Week 15: Final Exam & Comprehensive Presentation

1. Learning Objectives

- 1) To comprehensively review the entire course on Pauline Theology.
 - 2) To summarize and connect the core concepts from each week.
 - 3) To express theological insights through individual or group presentations.
 - 4) To assess the level of understanding through a final examination.
-

2. Class Flow

Session 1: Comprehensive Review and Q&A

- 1) Summary of the full curriculum (Weeks 1–14)
- 2) Key concept quiz and open Q&A
- 3) Group Discussion: "The Challenges and Opportunities Pauline Theology Presents to Today's Church"

Session 2: Final Exam (Mixed Format)

- 1) 10 multiple-choice questions
- 2) 5 short-answer questions
- 3) 2 essay questions
(e.g., "How does Paul's doctrine of justification relate to the Law?")

Session 3: Final Presentations and Feedback

- 1) 5 to 10-minute individual or group presentations
 - 2) Suggested topics:
 - (1) "Paul and Prosperity Theology: Critique and Alternatives"
 - (2) "Law and Gospel: The Redemptive Narrative According to Paul"
 - (3) "Pauline Stewardship Ethics and Financial Theology Today"
 - (4) "Women and the Church: The Contemporary Application of Paul's Letters"
 - 3) Instructor and peer feedback
 - 4) Final evaluation criteria announcement
-

3. Assignments

- 1) Final Presentation Submission(PPT or 2–page summary paper)
 - 2) Self–Reflection Report
(Topic: Which subject impacted you the most in this course, and why?)
-

4. Evaluation Criteria

Category	Weight
Final Exam	40%
Final Presentation	40%
Attendance & Participation	10%
Assignment Submission	10%

5. Closing Word

- 1) “The gospel of Paul is not merely a message of the past but a living truth that transforms the church and believers today.

- 2) You who have journeyed through this course are now equipped to interpret and proclaim this gospel as fellow co–workers in the truth.”