

Introduction to Pauline Truth (Orthodox Gospel) Theology

1. Theological Background

Today, churches and theology are losing their original biblical truth due to secular trends and human-centered ideologies.

Therefore, it is essential to restore theology rooted in God's Word and the purity of the gospel proclaimed by the Apostle Paul.

Pauline Truth (Orthodox Gospel) Theology aims to rebuild the church and theology based on the apostle Paul's original and orthodox gospel.

2. Purpose of Establishment

1) Restoration of Paul's Gospel:

To understand and apply the pure gospel preached by Apostle Paul in education and ministry.

2) Biblically Orthodox Theological Education:

To teach theology centered on the Bible, Jesus Christ, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Church Rebuilding and Missionary Training: To train leaders who can carry out the mission of truth in broken churches and society.

Global Theological Education: To produce theologians capable of spreading biblical truth across different languages and cultures.

3. Educational Philosophy

1) Bible-Centered:

All courses and research are grounded in Scripture.

2) Paul-Centered:

Focus on the letters and teachings of Paul to deepen faith and theology.

3) Emphasis on Orthodox Gospel:

Transmitting the gospel in its pure and original form without human alterations.

4) Mission-Oriented Practice:

Enhancing not only theological knowledge but also practical ministry and mission skills.

4. Curriculum

1) Undergraduate Program:

Basic theological education including Bible, theology, church history, and ethics.

2) Graduate Program:

Advanced theological research, Pauline epistle studies, practical theology, and ministry/mission studies.

3) Online and Home Seminary Model:

Allowing anyone to study from home and increasing global accessibility.

5. Core Values

1) Restoration of Truth:

Education centered on biblical truth and Paul's gospel.

2) Church-Centered:

Practical contribution to church rebuilding and ministry work.

3) Global Impact:

Spreading the gospel worldwide across linguistic and cultural barriers.

4) Mission and Practice:

Prioritizing action and mission over knowledge alone in theological training.
