

Week 15 Final Review and Practical Presentations

1. Overview

- 1) This lecture provides a comprehensive review of all apologetics topics covered throughout the semester and allows students to practice and present their own apologetic arguments.

  - 2) The goal is to apply theoretical knowledge to real-life situations and ministry contexts.
-

2. Learning Objectives

- 1) To systematically summarize the core content of apologetics
  - 2) To logically explain various apologetic topics
  - 3) To develop the ability to defend the gospel in real-life situations
  - 4) To clearly and persuasively articulate one's faith
-

3. Lecture Content

- 1) Comprehensive Review
    - (1) Definition and history of apologetics
    - (2) Philosophical arguments for the existence of God
    - (3) Reliability and authority of the Bible
    - (4) Divinity and resurrection of Jesus Christ
    - (5) The problem of evil and God's goodness
    - (6) Responses to atheism, skepticism, and pluralism
    - (7) Relationship between science and faith
    - (8) Defense of biblical ethics
    - (9) Pauline apologetic methods
    - (10) Missional and practical apologetics
-

2) Practical Presentations

Presentation Topics (Choose one)

- (1) Arguments for the existence of God
- (2) Historical evidence for the resurrection of Jesus
- (3) Defense of the reliability of the Bible
- (4) Christian response to the problem of evil
- (5) Critique of religious pluralism
- (6) Integration of personal testimony and apologetics

Presentation Structure

- (1) Problem statement
  - (2) Logical explanation
  - (3) Biblical foundation
  - (4) Conclusion and application
-

3) Feedback & Discussion

- (1) Peer evaluation and instructor feedback
  - (2) Assessment of logical consistency and biblical accuracy
  - (3) Discussion on real-life application
-

4. Activities

- 1) 5–10 minute presentation
  - 2) Q&A session
  - 3) Group discussion
  - 4) Final summary
-

5. Assessment

- 1) Logical coherence
  - 2) Biblical accuracy
  - 3) Clarity and persuasiveness
  - 4) Participation
-

6. Conclusion

- 1) This session serves as a final integration of apologetics learning, emphasizing practical application.

- 2) Students move beyond theory to develop real-world skills in defending and communicating the gospel effectively.